LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 23,
 1867.

Foreign Office, July 19, 1867.

(Quarantine, No. 30.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Florence a Despatch, of which the following is a copy:—

Florence, July 13, 1867.

OFFICIAL information having been received here of the breaking out of Cholera in Montenegro, orders have been issued from the Department of the Interior subjecting to quarantine of observation for fifteen days all vessels that have left any places on the coast of Dalmatia and Albania, between Spalatro and Durazzo—those two ports not included—after the 5th instant.

Foreign Office, July 22, 1867.

Her Majesty's Ambassador at St. Petersburg has transmitted to Her Majesty's Government the following notice, issued by the Russian Government, and published in the Journal de St. Pétersbourg of the ^{29 June,}_{11 July,} 1867, relative to the Passports of Foreigners arriving in Russia or wishing to leave the country:—

Le 22 mai dernier, S. M. l'Empereur a daigné sanctionner la décision suivante du Conseil de l'Empire, rendue sur la proposition du Ministre de l'Intérieur:—

“I. Les articles 469 à 472 du règlement sur les passeports, t. XIV du corps des lois, sont remplacés par les dispositions ci-dessous: 1° Les passeports à l'étranger se délivrent aux particuliers de toute condition sous la forme de livrets avec deux talons, dont l'un est coupé à la douane, au moment de la sortie du voyageur du territoire, et l'autre lorsqu'il y rentre en revenant de l'étranger; 2° chaque passeport doit mentionner les noms de baptême et de famille ainsi que la condition de son porteur, la désignation de l'autorité qui l'a délivré, la date de cette délivrance et son numéro, et doit en outre contenir un abrégé imprimé des règles en vigueur sur les passeports à l'étranger; 3° le passeport commence par les mots: Le porteur du présent, et se termine ainsi: En foi de quoi et pour sa libre circulation a été délivré le présent passeport avec apposition du sceau. A.... le.....18..après quoi vient la signature; 4° les passeports sont écrits en trois langues: russe, française et allemande.

“II. La rédaction des §§ 1, 13, et 14, de l'annexe à l'art. 436 (observ.) suppl. de 1863 du même règlement, est amendée ainsi qu'il suit: § I. Les étrangers sont admis en Russie, soit avec les passeports prescrits par les art. 486 et pour la formule imprimée du passeport. A la suite de quoi, on lui délivre un passeport à l'étranger, ou on lui restitue son passeport national avec un visa qui tient lieu de passeport, en observant les formalités prescrites aux étrangers domiciliés dans les districts pour le renouvellement des passeports autorisant leur séjour dans l'empire, sauf toutefois que dans son rapport au chef de la province la police doit certifier qu'aucun obstacle légal ne s'oppose au départ de Russie de l'étranger."

498 du présent règlement, soit avec leurs passeports et leurs livrets (Wanderbücher) nationaux visés par les légations et consulats de Russie, sans en excepter ceux sur lesquels, pendant leur séjour antérieur en Russie, aurait été inscrite la mention que d'après ces documents il avait été délivré des permis de séjour russes, pourvu que ces passeports et livrets soient encore valables. Pour rentrer en Russie avec un permis de séjour encore valable, un étranger n'a pas besoin du visa de nos légations et consulats. Les étrangers sortant de Russie avec des passeports russes spéciaux pour l'étranger doivent, pour rentrer en Russie, se faire délivrer à l'étranger des passeports de leur gouvernement et les faire viser par nos légations et consulats. § 13. Pour obtenir un passeport à l'étranger, tout étranger qui demeure dans un chef-lieu de gouvernement ou dans son district, doit se présenter en personne à la chancellerie du gouverneur, et, sans être obligé d'en faire la demande par écrit, présenter le passeport en vertu duquel il séjourne dans l'empire, ainsi que son passeport national s'il en possède un, et déposer 50 cop. pour coût de la formule imprimée du passeport, ainsi qu'un certificat de la police constatant qu'il n'y a pas de motif légal de s'opposer à son départ. L'étranger reçoit alors un passeport à l'étranger ou un visa sur son passeport national pour autoriser sa sortie du territoire, en observant les formalités prescrites aux étrangers pour le renouvellement des passeports autorisant leur séjour dans l'empire. § 14. Pour obtenir un passeport à l'étranger, l'étranger domicilié dans un district doit en adresser la demande par écrit, sur papier libre, à la police locale du district ou de la ville, en y joignant le passeport en vertu duquel il séjourne dans l'empire, ainsi que son passeport national s'il en possède un, en 50 cop.

Cette décision a été promulguée par un oukase du sénat dirigeant du 23 juin courant inséré au Bulletin des Lois.

(General, No. 14.)

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from the Swedish Chargé d'Affaires in this country, a Notice, of which the following is a translation, published by the Royal Administration of Marine Affairs at Stockholm:—

SHIPS IN DISTRESS.

Life Saving Establishments on the Coasts of Sweden.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following thirteen Stations, provided with expedients and implements for saving lives from shipwreck, have been established on the coasts of Sweden, at the places mentioned below, viz.:—

(1.) At Smögen, a fishing village, on the coast of Bohuslän near Hållö Lighthouse, with lifeboat;

(2.) At Kärringö, a fishing village, on the coast of Bohuslän, with lifeboat;

(3.) At Klädesholmen, a fishing village, on the coast of Bohuslän, near the Pater-Noster Rocks, with lifeboat;

(4.) At Torekov, a fishing village, situate near the frontier between the provinces Skåne and Halland, with rocket apparatus;

(5.) At Arildsläge, a fishing village, on the southern shore of Skelderviken, one mile east from Kullen Light, with rocket apparatus;

(6.) At Höganäs, a fishing village, about 1 mile south of Kullen, with lifeboat;

(7.) At Viken, a fishing village, 2 miles north of Helsingborg, with lifeboat and rocket apparatus;

(8.) At Mälarhusen, a village, on the east coast of Sandhammaren, likewise with lifeboat and rocket apparatus;

(9.) At Brantevik, a fishing village, $\frac{1}{2}$ mile south of Cimbritshamn, with a rocket apparatus;

(10.) At the town of Calmar, with lifeboat;

(11.) At Gräsgård, a village on the south-east coast of Oland, with lifeboat;

(12.) At Fahludden, on the south-east coast of Gottland, with lifeboat and rocket apparatus; and (13.) At Ekevik, on the north coast of Gottland's Fårö, with lifeboat.

In the event of vessels stranding near any of the said places, the shipwrecked ought to observe, and strictly to comply with, the notices and directions hereinafter contained.

A lifeboat will be sent off to assist the shipwrecked, if the stranding takes place near a station provided with such boat, and if circumstances admit of making use thereof. Otherwise the rocket apparatus will be employed; in which case the following rules are to be observed —

1. A rocket with a thin line attached having been fired across the stranded vessel, the people on board shall get hold of the line. Whereupon, and after having secured the line, the service of the saving apparatus on shore shall be informed thereof by signals, as follows:—if in the daytime, one of the crew, separated from the rest, waves his hat or his hand, or a flag or a handkerchief; and if at night, a shot or a rocket is fired, or a light is displayed over the side of the ship and directly again concealed.

2. When it is observed on board that one of the men on shore, separated from the rest, waves a Red flag, or when, if at night, a Red light is shown and then concealed, the crew is to haul upon the rocket line until they get on board an accompanying tailed block with an endless fall rove through it.

3. The tail-block is to be made fast to a mast about 15 feet above the deck, or, if the masts are gone, to the highest secure part of the vessel. When the tail-block is made fast, the signal required by the Article 1 above is to be repeated.

4. As soon as the signal is seen on shore, a hawser will be bent to the whip-line and hauled off to the ship.

5. The hawser last above-mentioned ought to be made fast at once at the same part of the ship as the tailed-block is made fast to, only about $1\frac{1}{2}$ foot higher, taking care that there are no turns of the whip line round the hawser. Thereupon the signal mentioned above is again to be repeated.

6. The men on shore will then heave the hawser taut, and by means of the whip line will haul off to the ship a sling or cot called a saving-chair, and running on the hawser by means of parrels, into which chair the person to be hauled ashore is to get, and then the signal directed above shall be repeated; whereupon the people on shore will haul the person in the chair to the shore, and when he has landed will haul the empty chair back to the ship. The said operation will then be repeated in respect of every body on board, until all shipwrecked persons are brought ashore.

7. If, as it may sometimes happen, the hawser cannot be hauled taut, the person to be saved will be hauled through the surf immediately, instead of along the hawser; in which case the saving-chair is to be considered as a life-buoy.

Finally, it should be borne in mind that success in the saving operations in a great measure depends upon the coolness of the shipwrecked, and their strict attention to the rules here laid down, especially to those respecting the signals; and on these occasions all women, children, other passengers, and helpless persons, should be landed before the crew of the ship.

II.

The tax now existing for the benefit of the city of Riga of $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. on the value of all goods imported and exported at the Port of Riga, shall be reduced by one-half from the year 1868; that is to say, that from the 1st of January, 1868, only $\frac{1}{8}$ per cent. shall be levied on all goods imported and exported, the town taking upon itself (a)—To keep up the Mercantile Courts and Police of Riga; (b)—To increase the Police and Fire Brigade as may be necessary.

III.

The third and fourth taxes of $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent., as well as that of $\frac{1}{8}$ per cent. on the value of imports and exports, under the conditions that the Local Authorities shall report to the Minister of the Interior relative to the possibility of suppressing these three taxes, so soon as the loans to the payment of which they are to be applied shall have been disposed of, or shall propose their reduction, should the keeping the harbour in a satisfactory condition render a permanent tax necessary; (c)—The tax of 1 copeck per last on all out-going vessels for the benefit of the Marine Hospital and the construction of a Hospize.

3. With the character of a voluntary contribution, the tax for the benefit of the Seamen's Widow and Orphan Fund, and of the Riga Seamen Society; the amount of this tax is left to be decided by the shipowners of Riga, without placing shipowners of other ports under the obligation of subscribing to it.

IV.

The temporary tax of 15 copecks per last on all merchants' vessels quitting the port, applied to deepening the navigable canal of the river, is changed into a tax of 10 copecks per last, which shall be levied equally on all merchants' vessels entering and quitting the port, on the condition, however, that the produce of this tax shall be exclusively applied to deepening the bed of the river, and to no other purpose.

V.

To replace the taxes which have been suppressed, and especially the tax of 5 copecks per last, the quay, shore and bridge duties, as well as the tax called (Bewilligungsgelder), there is provisionally established, for the benefit of the city of Riga, a single tax of 23 copecks per last, to be levied on each vessel which shall have actually made use of the town preparations for the use of ships, the town engaging on its part, (a)—To establish and keep in good order, and free from danger, the bridges and quays necessary for mooring the ships: (b)—To furnish masters of vessels, without cost, the beams, and planks necessary for constructing the stages for loading and discharging; (c)—To exempt from all bridge payments and other similar charges, all merchandize carried to and from vessels.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 23, 1867.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Wednesday, August 21, 1867.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM happy to be enabled to release you from the labours of a long and more than usually eventful session, and to offer you my acknowledgments for the successful diligence with which you have applied yourselves to your parliamentary duties.

My relations with foreign countries continue on a friendly footing.

At the commencement of the present year great fears were entertained that the differences which had arisen between France and Prussia might have led to a war of which it was impossible to foresee the ultimate result. Happily the advice tendered by my Government, and by those of the other neutral States, aided by the moderation of the two Powers chiefly interested, sufficed to avert the threatened calamity; and I trust that no ground at present exists for apprehending any disturbance of the general peace.

The communications which I have made to the reigning monarch of Abyssinia, with a view to obtain the release of the British subjects whom he detains in his dominions, have, I regret to say, thus far proved ineffectual. I have, therefore, found it necessary to address to him a peremptory demand for their immediate liberation and to take measures for supporting that demand, should it ultimately be found necessary to resort to force.

The treasonable conspiracy in Ireland, to which I have before called your attention, broke out in the early part of the present year in a futile attempt at insurrection. That it was suppressed, almost without bloodshed, is due not more to the disciplined valour of my troops, and to the admirable conduct of the police, than to the general loyalty of the population and the absence of any token of sympathy with the insurgents on the part of any considerable portion of my subjects. I rejoice that the supremacy of the law was vindicated without imposing on me the painful necessity of sacrificing a single life.

The bill for the abolition of certain local exemptions from taxation enabled me to avail myself of a liberal concession made, in anticipation, by the Emperor of the French, whereby several taxes were removed which pressed heavily upon British shipping.

I have concluded a postal convention with the United States of America, whereby the rate of postage between the two countries will be diminished by one-half, and further arrangements are in progress for increasing the intercourse between this country and the continent of North America.

The Act for the union of the British North American provinces is the final accomplishment of a scheme long contemplated, whereby those colonies, now combined in one dominion, may be expected not only to gain additional strength for the purposes of defence against external aggression, but may be united among themselves by fresh ties of mutual interest, and attached to the mother country by the only bonds which can effectually secure such important dependencies—those of loyalty to the Crown and attachment to British connection.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the liberal supplies which you have voted for the public service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have had great satisfaction in giving my assent to a Bill for amending the representation of the people in Parliament. I earnestly trust that the extensive and liberal measure which you have passed may effect a durable settlement of a question which has long engaged public attention; and that the large number of my subjects who will be for the first time admitted to the exercise of the elective franchise may, in the discharge of the duties thereby devolved upon them prove themselves worthy of the confidence which Parliament has reposed in them.

It is gratifying to me to find that the lengthened consideration which you have necessarily given to this important question has not prevented your entering on many subjects to which your attention was directed at the commencement of the Session, and particularly to such as have immediate reference to the well-being of the industrial classes.

I have had especial pleasure in giving my assent to Bills for extending to various trades, with such modifications as have been found necessary, the provisions of the Factory Acts, the success of which has proved the possibility of combining effectual protection to the labour of women and children with a due consideration for the interests of the trades immediately concerned.

I confidently anticipate from the operation of the present Acts the same improvement in the physical, social, and moral condition of the working classes, which has been found to accompany the application of the Acts to those trades to which they have been hitherto confined.

The restraints alleged to be imposed on workmen and their employers by trade unions and other associations appeared to me to call for inquiry; and the revelations derived from the examinations before the Commission, to which you gave your legislative sanction, have disclosed a state of things which will demand your most earnest attention.

The administration of the poor laws, which generally has conferred great benefit on the community, and especially on the poor themselves, requires constant supervision; and I have readily assented to a Bill which, applied to the metropolis alone, will tend to equalize the pressure of taxation, and improve the treatment of the sick poor, whose condition will be greatly benefited by your well-considered legislation.

The Bill for the regulation of the merchant shipping contains important provisions calculated to add to the health and comfort of those engaged in the mercantile marine.

These and other valuable amendments of the law have been the result of your labours during the present session; and in returning to your homes you will carry with you the gratifying consciousness that your time and pains have not been misapplied, and that they have resulted in a series of measures which I hope, and earnestly pray, may contribute to the welfare of the country, and the contentment and happiness of my people.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said :

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Orders for observance of Regulations for the Navigation of the River Amazonas and its confluent, and of the River San Francisco.

IN consideration of Article 5 of the Decree of 7th December, 1866, and having before me the 1867.

Article 172 of the Regulation of 19th September, 1860,

It is my will to command that, in the navigation of the River Amazonas and its confluent, and of the River San Francisco, the regulation below be observed, signed by Zacharias de Goés e Vasconcellos, of my Council, Senator of the Empire, President of the Council of Ministers, Minister and Secretary of State for Finance, and President of the Tribunal of the Treasury. Let him so have understood it and cause it to be executed.

Palace of Rio de Janeiro, 3rd July, 1867, forty-sixth year of the independence and of the Empire. With the sign-manual of His Majesty the Emperor.

ZACHARIAS DE GOÉS E VASCONCELLOS.

Regulations for the Navigation of the River Amazonas and its confluent, and of the River San Francisco.

ART. 1. The Navigation from 7th September, 1867, forward, shall be open to merchant vessels of all nations:—

- 1st. Of the River Amazons, as far as the village of Tabatinga (Art. 3, sole §).
- 2nd. Of the River Tocantins, as far as the city of Cametá.
- 3rd. Of the River Tapajoz, as far as the city of Santarem.
- 4th. Of the River Madeira, as far as the town of Borba.
- 5th. Of the River Negro, as far as the city of Manaós.
- 6th. Of the River San Francisco, as far as the city of Penedo (Decree of 7th December, 1866).

ART. 2. The merchant vessels of any nation, or wheresoever they may come from, and which may be seeking a port of the Empire in the Amazonas and its confluent, may either enter by the bar of Pará or by the principal mouth of said river, following either of the two channels between Macapá and Caviana Island, and between that of Mexiana and of Marajó (Arts 31 and 36).

ART. 3. For the navigation and commerce of the River Amazonas and others, to which Art. 1 refers, the collectories of revenue of Manaós in the River Negro, and of Penedo in the River San Francisco, become raised to the category of custom-houses, and the following custom-houses established :—

- 1st. Of Cametá, in the River Tocantins.
- 2nd. Of Santarém, in the River Tapajoz.
- 3rd. Of Borba, in the River Madeira.
- 4th. Of San Paulo de Olivença, in the River Amazonas (Solimões).

§ The custom-house of San Paulo de Olivença shall be transferred to Tabatinga, the collectory of revenues established by Art. 5 of Decree No. 3216, of 31st December, 1863, being extinct as soon as, in conformity with Art. 3 of the Decree of 7th December, 1866, the convention on the fiscal and police regulations in the waters of the Amazonas (Solimões), from the mouth of the Javary as far as the place called Santo Antonio, on the frontier of the empire bounding Perú, shall be celebrated.

ART. 4. The Custom-houses now established shall have the same attributions as the others of the Empire as to the commerce of importation and exportation of foreign merchandize, and of that of produce of the country, and of national industry and manufacture, the dispositions of this Decree being preserved.

ART. 5. In virtue of the disposition of the preceding Article, the dispatch may be made in the said custom-houses,—

1st. Of importation of foreign goods, and of national produce, industry, or manufacture.

2nd. Of re-exportation, or shifting from one vessel to another, of foreign goods.

3rd. Of exportation of foreign goods which have already paid duties ; and

4th. Of the exportation of goods, the produce, industry, or manufacture of the country.

Sec. 1. The re-exportation and shifting from one vessel to the other of foreign goods, from one port to the other of the Empire, in the Amazonas and its confluent, is not permitted, except to those ports in which there is a custom-house, (Law of 18th September, 1845, Art. 25 ; Regulation of the Customs of 19th September, 1860, Art. 621).

Sec. 2. The merchandize already dispatched for consumption, in said Custom-houses, and which has, for any motive whatever, to go on to the Custom-house of Pará, or to any other port not in the Amazonas, shall previously satisfy the amount of the abatement which, at the time of their shipment or the delivery of their permit takes place, in conformity with Art. 40, this item of payment being entered on the respective dispatch. In the case of the want of a declaration in the custom-house or collectory of inward revenue, the difference shall be collected in a double ratio.

ART. 6. Depôts (warehouses for deposits) shall be established in the Custom-houses of Manãos, Borba, and Tabatinga (Art. 3, sole §), as soon as the conventions on limits and fiscal and police regulations to which Art 3. of Decree of 7th December, 1866, refers, shall be celebrated.

The entry of goods in the custom-house warehouses may take place in the following cases ;—

- 1st. Of direct importation by sea, or by the inward waters of the Provinces of Amazonas or Pará, in conformity with the treaties and conventions, and the fiscal regulations expedited for their being put in execution (Reg. cit. Art. 164).
- 2nd. Of transference from one Custom-house warehouse to another (Reg. cit. Art. 216).
- 3rd. Of importation of national goods dispatched in any of the fluvial Custom-houses : this disposition extending to the Custom-house warehouses of Pará.

Sec. 1. The Custom-house warehouses shall, as far as receiving import duties, be like to foreign territory ; consequently the merchandize may, during the allotted time, be freely, either all or part of them :—

- 1st. Re-exported, in transit to ports in boundary States, or transported to other Custom-house depôts, the natural Custom-house, or foreign port, without paying duties.
- 2nd. Dispatched for consumption, paying the respective duties.

Sec. 2. The merchandize, for the favour of the preceding Article, does not depend on the declaration in the manifest of the vessel, in order to be consigned to the depôt ; the declaration of the owners or consignees of the goods is sufficient, on their entering the depôt.

Sec. 3. The President of the Province of Amazonas, upon the representation of the Inspectors of Customs, and instruction from the Treasury, shall designate the warehouses for the deposit of merchandize, and shall name the administrators of said depôts.

Sec. 4. The said President of the Province of Amazonas, consulting the Inspectors of the Treasury and the Inspectors of the Customs, may, if necessary, authorize besides the public depôt, private depôts; the concession depending, but without suspension of effect, on the approval of the Government.

Sec. 5. In all else which has reference to the concession of depôts, the entry, deposit, and going out of merchandize, their administration and responsibility, the dispositions of the regulations of the Customs, and of the Decree No. 3,217, of 31st December, 1863, shall be observed.

ART. 7. The Collectory of Revenue of Villa Nova, on the right bank of the river San Francisco, Province of Sergipe, besides the dispatch of imported goods, the product, industry, or manufacture both of the country and foreign, which, have already paid duties, becomes qualified for exportation of national produce, either within or from out of the empire.

Sec. 1. The same station may equally admit the dispatching, national, or foreign vessels which may arrive loaded with foreign merchandize, free of duty.

Sec. 2. When vessels carry besides the merchandize mentioned in the preceding Article, others also of foreign origin, these shall be first dispatched in the Custom-house of Penedo, and shall go on afterwards with those whose dispatch can be made in the said collectory of revenues, each vessel receiving on board a guard of the said Custom-house, who shall accompany it to the port of Villa Nova.

Sec. 3. The collectory of revenue shall be considered of the second order; its administrator and the clerk shall receive the percentage which the President of the Province, the Treasury being consulted, shall award to them, being subject to the approval of the Government; and the two guards, who may be employed in that service, the daily pay fixed by the regulations of the Customs.

ART. 8. The importation of foreign goods for consumption, deposit, or transit, and the exportation of the produce, industry, and manufacture of the country to foreign ports, or of foreign merchandize already dispatched for consumption, or in deposit or transit, cannot be effected in the River Amazonas and its confluent, or in the River San Francisco, save in ports qualified by the present decree (Reg. cit., Art. 315).

Sec. 1. Under extraordinary circumstances and in the interest of public health and safety, the Presidents of the Provinces of Amazonas, Pará, and Alagoas, upon immediately informing the Government, may temporarily prohibit the importation, deposit, or transit, and the exportation or going out of certain foreign merchandize, or produce, manufacture, or industry of the country, in one or more of the ports or places mentioned, and their circulation within a certain and determined zone of the frontiers of the empire (Reg. cit. Art. 315, Sec 2.)

Sec. 2. The infraction of any of the dispositions aforesaid, shall be punished by the seizure of the merchandize, loss of the vessels which may have directly served for its fraudulent importation, exportation, or transference from one vessel to another, and fine equal to two-thirds of the value of the merchandize (Reg. cit. Art. 315, Sec. 3.).

Sec. 3. The penalties mentioned in the preceding paragraph extend to every attempt of fraudulent importation, exportation, or transshipment from one vessel to another, which may have been shewn by outward acts or commencement of execution, frustrated by fortuitous circumstances, or independent of the will of the party.

ART. 9. To the penal dispositions of Secs. 2 and 3 of the preceding Article are subject:—

Sec. 1. Foreign vessels of every description, tonnage, flag, or from whatever port soever.

ART. 28. The Custom-houses established by the present Decree shall have the employés, and these the salaries, as per annexed table.

ART. 29. Each one of the said Custom-houses shall have at its disposal, for out-door service and fluvial police, a watch boat or boats, launches, or small vessels, according as the President of the Province may judge necessary, the treasury being consulted in the matter, manned and armed with the same number of men, like wages and duties as the vessels of the Customs as per respective regulation.

Art. 30. The Presidents of the Provinces of Amazonas, Pará, and Alagoãs, the treasury as well as the Inspectors of Customs, having been consulted, shall point out the boundaries of the jurisdiction of the fluvial Custom-houses.

Sole sec. Notwithstanding the boundaries being pointed out, the jurisdiction of the Customs of the Empire being cumulative (Reg. Cit., Art. 368), the authorities charged with the fiscal police, with the force which aids it in its duties, as likewise the watch-boats, may enter another district to repress smuggling; but the seizure being made, it shall be delivered to the Custom-house which may be nearest to the place for the ulterior steps of the process.

ART. 31. There shall be a register of armed vessels furnished with small boats necessary for the service, not only in the ports of Pará and Tabatinga (Art. 3, Sole Sec.), as also on the great shoal above Gurupá, in the channel of Macapá, wherever most convenient, and facing the town of Chaves, in the island of Marajó,

ART. 32. Besides the Register of Art. 31, the Presidents of the provinces of Amazona, Pará, and Alagoás, the treasuries being consulted, shall establish other registers, guards, posts, and preventive stations, charged with the fiscal police, subject to the jurisdiction of the respective Custom-houses in the places where they may deem it necessary.

Sec. 1. The said presidents, the treasuries being consulted, as also the inspectors of customs, shall give the necessary instructions to the posts and registers, communicating the same to the Government for final approval.

Sec. 2. These registers, guards, posts, and fiscal watchmen, as well as those to which Art. 18, Sec. 2, refers, not having stations where the general revenue is collected, should be intrusted to the stations, registers, guards, and posts of the fiscal police of the provinces, commanders of detachments, post office agencies, or any other general or provincial authorities existing in the places mentioned.

ART. 33. In the registers of Macapá, Chaves, and Tabatinga, there shall be a force of troops of the line, or of the police corps, composed of the number of officers and privates which may be designated by the Presidents of Pará and Amazonas, which force shall make it their duty to assist the said registers in the execution of their fiscal regulations.

ART. 34. The civil, judicial, military, and other authorities of whom Art. 263 of the Customs' Regulations treats, are especially charged with the fiscal police in the waters and on the banks of the River Amazonas and its confluent, and of the River St. Francisco, in the words of 349 assisting the fiscal departments in the execution of its duties, and carrying out and causing to be carried out the present Decree and the regulation cited, in the part which concerns them.

Sole Sec. The same obligations are incumbent on pilots and experienced seamen of the country, who from the moment they get on board the vessels shall be considered as employés of the customs, and as such subject to the duties and penalties which the law imposes on them.

ART. 35. The employés charged with the fiscal police, in conformity with Art. 57 of the regulation, may, to prevent or verify fraud, of which there is well grounded suspicion, demand not only of the commanders of vessels, as also of the masters of the small barks, covered launches, canoes, and other vessels of small dimensions, of the former the ship's papers and manifests, and of the latter the dockets of the cargo which they carry, verifying their nationality from whence they came, and their destination and what more be required. This act, however, ought to be done in such a manner as not to cause the slightest vexation or hindrance to lawful commerce.

Art. 36. The vessels which have to navigate to the ports of the empire in the River Amazonas and its confluent, or which have to leave them for the ocean, are obliged to (go to) the register:—

First. In the port of Pará or in Macapá, or in Chaves (Arts. 2 and 31), according to the destination they may have entering or going to the ocean.

Second. In Tabatinga (Art. 31) entering from the ports of Peru, or going to them.

Sec. 1. The vessels should lay to on approaching the aforementioned registers, being lawful to do so without anchoring; and those which refuse to stop at the register shall be compelled to do so by the guard boats, which shall use force, if necessary, the respective commanders being subject to a fine of 100$000 to 1,000$000 according to the burden of the vessel and nature of the cargo.

Sec. 2. The registers of which this Article treats, fulfilling the obligations of the fiscal regulations, shall advise the Custom-houses, under whose orders they serve, of the entry and departure of ships, of the examinations and searches which they had made in cases of well-founded suspicion of the correctness of the manifests, of the seizures they may have made, and of all the movements which shall have taken place.

Sec. 3. The said registers, besides the obligations marked in the regulation of the Customs, Arts. 56 and 348, shall verify the nationality, from whence coming, and destination of the ship by the papers from on board, putting the visé gratis on the manifest and list of passengers, and giving to the vessel the competent pass.

Sec. 4. The pass which the preceding paragraph refers to, shall be delivered in the first Custom-house at which the vessel may touch, or to the register on going out, the respective chief should make the communications which may be necessary to whom it may concern.

Sec. 5. The said registers, according to circumstances, and it being necessary to prevent the embezzlement of duties of importation or exportation, may shut and seal up the hatches of vessels, or the places in which are deposited the merchandise, or place one or two guards on board to go on as far as it is required, and also make use of both formalities conjointly.

Sec. 6. The guards to which the preceding section refers, besides what the regulation of the Customs makes incumbent on them, shall not consent to the vessels communicating with the land, load or discharge, save in cases provided for in this decree, or commit any infraction of the fiscal regulations.

Sec. 7. The commanders of the vessels shall be obliged to give lodging and food, from his own mess, to said guards, without these being allowed to demand retribution or accept any offer whatever (Reg. cit., Art. 159).

ART. 37. The dispositions of Secs. 5, 8, and 7, of the preceding Article, extend to all fluvial Custom-houses of which this decree treats.

ART. 38. The doubts which may arise, on the occasion of executing this decree and the fiscal regulations in the fluvial Custom-houses, shall be solved by the respective inspectors, by the treasuries of finance department, and by the presidents of the provinces, taking into consideration the misunderstanding of the said regulations as long as there is good faith, and the favour of the trade and navigation of the River Amazonas and others to which the decree of 7th December, 1866, refers.

Sole Sec. The decisions of the inspectors of Customs, as well as treasuries, and of presidents (Reg. cit., Arts. 8 and 13) shall be executed provisionally, immediately giving an account to the superior authority for his government and final deliberations.

ART. 39. Besides the dispositions of the preceding Articles, those of the regulation of 19th September, 1860, other fiscal regulations in the part which does not contravene, shall be observed in the Custom-houses established by this decree, and in the fluvial navigation.

ART. 40. In the Custom-houses of the Rio Amazonas and its confluent, the abatement of 20 per cent. of the amount of duties of consumption, and additional duties, shall be made, as long as they exist, of all merchandize which the Government shall not think proper to except.

This disposition shall take effect from the date of the execution of this decree until the end of the financial year 1872, 1873, and thenceforward in each financial space of time which shall follow, 5 per cent. shall be deducted in abatement, until this shall cease.

This Article depends on the legislature for approval.

ART. 41. The dispositions of this decree shall be applied immediately to Peruvian vessels, in the part in which they are more favourable than those of the Decree, No. 3216, of 31st December, 1863.

ART. 42. The conventions being celebrated with the boundary states on the fluvial police, the government, besides the regulations which may be necessary, shall expedite without delay, that of direct transit of any vessels coming from the sea to those states, and vice versâ, without opening the hatches, or transshipping the merchandize along all the extent of the Amazonas and its confluent, in the part belonging to Brazil.

The direct transit shall not be subject to any formality whatever, in relation to the Brazilian Custom-houses, save experience should shew the insufficiency of the means adopted to prevent smuggling.

These measures shall be the summary examination of the manifest and cargo in the registers of entry and departure, the police exercised on land along the margins and on the river, by means of vessels appropriated for that duty, the placing of guards on board, or sealing the hatches; these last measures may be employed singly or conjointly.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do within nine calendar months after the date of this Our Commission, or as soon as the same can conveniently be done (using all diligence), certify unto Us, in Our Court of Chancery, under the hands and seals of you, or any six or more of you, what you shall have done in the premises.

And We further will and command that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any six or more of you, shall and may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Christiania the Decree, of which the following is a translation, which has been issued by the Norwegian Government:—

Under date of the 16th instant the following Proclamation respecting Quarantine for Cholera has been promulgated:

WE, CHARLES, &c., &c., maketh known: Pursuant to the Sec. 14 of the Quarantine Law of the 12th July, 1848. The following Quarantine Regulations, with respect to the malignant (Asiatic) cholera, were enacted.

SEC. I.

A ship arriving in this country from abroad shall hoist the quarantine flag:

- a. If she comes from a foreign cholera infected harbour, or has had intercourse with an infected port or ship with sick on board.

- b.* If any sick on board, and that sickness is likely to spread or become cholera.
- c.* If during the voyage, or on arrival, there has, or is on board, any dead, or sick, apparently from, or likely to become cholera: or
- d.* If there is on board clothing or bedding which may have been used by those suffering from cholera, or died from the same.

In all these cases intercourse with land is prohibited, until the ship has been inspected according to the quarantine regulations.

Such foreign places are considered as infected by cholera where it has become known from trustworthy authority that this malignant (Asiatic) cholera has broken out, even if no official report regarding it has been announced.

SEC. II.

On arriving at a Norwegian port, where no quarantine commission has been established, the passengers and crew of any vessel on board of which any of the above cited cases have occurred, must be examined by the Custom-house Officer, or, if necessary, by the Pilot Master.

Should any of the cases cited in Sec. 1, b, c, or d, be found then to exist, a report must be made without delay to the nearest Quarantine Commission, who will direct such further steps as may be necessary, where this cannot be done, the quarantine flag must be struck, and the vessel directed to proceed to the nearest port where a Quarantine Commission has been established.

When on arrival the quarantine flag must again be hoisted.

SEC. III.

On arrival in a Norwegian port where a Quarantine Commission resides, the ship, in any of the cases specified in Sec. I, with the crew and passengers on board, must submit as soon as possible to the inspection of the Commission, and, as far as practicable, by any medical member or other doctor deputed by the Commission.

SEC. IV.

If any cholera patient or suspected case is found on board, such a patient is to be effectually isolated, either on shore, if the Quarantine Commission can find for that purpose a proper isolated locality, or on board in such a manner as the Commission may direct. If any is found dead on board from cholera, the body must be buried in such a manner as the Quarantine Commission directs, with a view to prevent the spreading of the disease.

Clothing found on board that has been used by a cholera patient, or one that has died therefrom, must, together with the room in which they have been preserved, be purified in a manner the Quarantine Commission may direct.

SEC. V.

Should any cholera case have occurred on board, the Quarantine Commission can determine that the vessel, with all persons on board, should be isolated for a period of five days after the purification referred to Sec. VI has taken place.

Should such isolation not be ordered, healthy passengers, on board regular passenger going steamers, have permission to leave the vessel as soon as the inspection is finished; on the other hand, the crew, as well as those on board other ships, can only leave after the purifying has taken place.

SEC. VI.

When those who have died of cholera, or suspected of being infected, have been taken from the ship, or where such patient remains on board, after his recovery, the clothes that he has used, the room, and other objects, must be purified (see Secs. 54 and 55 of the Quarantine Regulations of the 10th February, 1849).

During the time the patient, or the dead are on board, and until the purification has taken place, the ship must keep the quarantine flag flying; and with reference to the regular passenger-going steamers, where the passengers who are well, have been brought on shore, the vessel must have no further communication with the shore, or with the other ships, than such as is permitted by the Quarantine Commission, but she is not to be hindered in unloading or loading such subjects as the cargoes may consist, provided the precautionary measures prescribed by the Quarantine Commission are strictly observed.

SEC. VII.

Vessels having an authorised doctor on board, the inspection referred to in Secs. II and III is dispensed with, provided the doctor declares before the Quarantine Inspectors that there is no one on board dead, ill, or suspected with cholera, or any clothes that have been used by such.

SEC. VIII.

Vessels coming from home ports that have, or during the voyage have had any cholera patient or dead on board, must hoist the quarantine flag, and submit to quarantine treatment, as if she had come from any foreign port.

SEC. IX.

For the quarantine inspection, and in case of having to perform quarantine, the doctor receives Spæ. 1, for every twenty persons who may be examined by him on board. Each professional member of the Quarantine Commission receives for every ship he joins in the inspection in such case sixty skillings. The Custom-house officer or pilot-master receives for every vessel inspected, in accordance with Sec. 2 (last year Sec. 8), sixty skillings.

For the granting of a certificate that a vessel, continuing her voyage to another Norwegian port, has undergone the requisite purification of Sec. 6, and, where necessary, been released from the prescribed in Sec. 5 isolation, the Quarantine Secretary is entitled to sixty skillings.

SEC. X.

The regulations hitherto in force, especially for cholera, as well as all elder regulations contrary to the contents of this proclamation, are hereby repealed.

Whereas all whom it may concern have to act in accordance.

Christiania, 16th September, 1867.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, October 10, 1867.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, an extract of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Florence, inclosing the following translation of a Decree, containing regulations concerning the payment of duty on goods which may be in Ancona and Leghorn on the 1st January next, when their privileges as free ports will cease accordingly to the Law of May 11, 1865.

ART. 1. On the 1st January, 1868, all goods in the cities of Leghorn and Ancona which are not destined for re-exportation or for conveyance to the Customs' warehouses, and those which are offered for consumption in those free towns will be subject to import duty, either according to the General Tariff of the Kingdom, or according to the Conventional Tariff, when such goods can be proved to be the produce of countries to which that Conventional Tariff is applicable.

ART. 2. Consequently the owners of such goods must declare at the Custom-house within the space of eight days, from the 1st to the 8th of January, 1868, all the goods in their warehouses, stores, shops, or dwelling-houses, specifying them according to the denominations in the tariff.

Retail dealers will not be obliged to state with extreme accuracy the weight and description of each article.

Owners of goods may make their declarations before the above-mentioned term at any time after the 10th of December, 1867.

ART. 3. Declarations must be made up in the form prescribed by the Director-General of Customs. They must be made out in triplicate and must be signed by the holders of the goods.

ART. 4. A temporary office will be provided for the purpose of receiving the above mentioned declarations.

The three copies of each declaration having been compared with each other and found to correspond, they will be numbered progressively in the order in which the declarations are presented, and one copy will serve for registration, another for the Custom-house operations which are about to be mentioned, and the third having been certified and stamped at the office will be returned to the declarer, in order that by means of it he may be able to prove his right to the possession of the goods until the completion of the Customs' operations.

ART. 5. Goods destined for re-exportation may be conveyed to the Custom-house (if there be room enough), or to suitable private warehouses, or they may remain where they are, provided they are ready to be sent abroad in the course of the month of January, 1868.

ART. 6. Goods intended to be deposited under the care of the Custom-house officers or in private warehouses must be conveyed to the proper warehouses in packages or mixed together according to circumstances. Even tissues may be kept in private warehouses provided they are in the condition required by Art. 35 of the Customs' regulations. The Director-General of the Customs may in conformity with Art. 58 of the Custom-house instructions permit under special circumstances the warehousing of goods to be kept in packages without the formality of two keys.

ART. 7. The District Director of Customs will designate the office where goods for transit and transmission to other Custom-houses or warehouses in the Kingdom are to be delivered. As securities in these transactions, bonds signed by two merchants of good repute—and as such are to be considered those recommended by the Chambers of Commerce—may be received, as well as the kinds of security prescribed by Article 27 of the Custom-house Instructions.

ART. 8. Goods which admit of immediate clearance will be examined on the spot, and on payment of duty delivered up to the owner, with a certificate of payment of import duty.

The stamp may be affixed to tissues on the spot, whenever that is possible, otherwise they must be taken to the Custom-house.

ART. 9. The District Director, upon information received as to the honesty of the merchant, may dispense with the actual examination, and settle the amount of duty according to the declaration made.

The Chamber of Commerce will name one of its members, and choose five of the most respectable merchants, to assist the Director in deciding upon the above-mentioned exemptions.

ART. 10. The payment of duty may begin on the 10th of December, 1867.

A delay for the payment of duty may be granted to all those who make their declarations before the 1st of January, 1868, and they may likewise be allowed to pay by instalments.

Bills with three unexceptionable signatures may be received as security for payment of duty.

The date at which these bills are made payable must not be later than June 30, 1868.

ART. 11. On the 9th of January, 1868, a general settlement of accounts for duties will be effected, and all foreign goods which, on the examination of the warehouses, are found not declared, or in excess, or differing from the description given, will be seized as contraband goods, on account of which penalties will be inflicted.

Goods declared for re-exportation will be seized in the same manner, when they are found to be of smaller quantity or different quality than what is stated in the declaration.

Fines will not be imposed in cases where the difference does not exceed 5 per cent.

ART. 12. The Custom-houses at the boundaries of the Free Cities will be maintained for a period not exceeding two months.

They will be empowered to levy duties upon, or transmit to other Custom-houses :—

a. From the 1st to the 8th of January, all sorts of goods, even when not declared at the temporary office ;

b. From and after the 9th of January, all declared goods. In this case, the declaration must be presented in duplicate, in order that one copy may be sent to the temporary office where the goods have been registered.

All other goods accompanied by receipts proving the payment of duty, or by certificates of security from the Custom-house or from some other competent office.

ART. 13. Articles of Italian produce which have paid export duty on entering the Free Cities, and which, up to the 31st December, have not been exported to foreign countries, will not be subject to any further duty, if they correspond with the declaration made of them, provided their actual exportation take place in the course of the months of January and February, or they be warehoused under the care of the Customs authorities.

If no declaration is made within the term prescribed by Article 2, or if, on examination, there should prove to be a deficiency in quantity or a difference in quality, no such facility will be granted.

ART. 14. All articles evidently of native produce or manufacture, even when composed of foreign raw materials, which may be in the Free Cities on the 1st of January, will be exempt from payment of duty, and consequently also from the formality of declaration.

ART. 15. Foreign articles provided for the use of private individuals in their dwelling-houses will be free to such an amount as may be sufficient for six months' consumption, according to the number of persons in a family.

In cases of strong suspicion of smuggling, the houses even of persons not engaged in trade may be searched. But no search can take place except in the daytime, and in the presence of a police officer.

ART. 16. A Commission, composed of the Prefect, the President of the Chamber of Commerce, and the District Director of Customs, will be appointed to act from the 10th of December, 1867, until the end of February, 1868, for the purpose of settling disputes which may arise between dealers and the Custom-house, whenever the District Director is unable to satisfy the parties interested.

When the members of the Commission are not unanimous, or when the parties interested will not acquiesce in the proposed arrangement, the final decision will rest with the Minister of Finance.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of NOVEMBER 5,

At the Court at Windsor, the 4th day of November, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majcsty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden on the 6th and 7th years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty to hold, exercise, and enjoy any power or jurisdiction which Her Majesty now hath, or may at any time hereafter have, within any country or place out of Her Majesty's dominions in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired such power or jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory ;

And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of His Majesty the Sultan of Muscat and its dependencies ;

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the due and effectual exercise of such power and jurisdiction ;

1. Now, therefore, in pursuance and by virtue of the said recited Act of Parliament, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that Her Majesty's Consuls appointed to reside in the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat shall have full power and authority to carry into effect, and to enforce by the means and in the manner hereinafter mentioned and provided, the observance of the stipulations of any Treaty or Convention, or of any Regulations appended to any Treaty or Convention now existing, or which may hereafter be made between Her Majesty, her heirs and successors ; and the Sultan of Muscat, his heirs, and successors : and to make and to enforce, by fine or imprisonment, or both, Rules and Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty or Convention, and for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, his heirs and successors.

2. And it is further ordered, that a copy of all such Rules and Regulations made by the said Consul shall forthwith be affixed, and kept affixed and exhibited, in some conspicuous place in the public office of the said Consul, and that printed copies of the said Rules and Regulations shall, as soon as possible, be provided by the said Consul, and sold at a price not exceeding one dollar for each copy; and for the purpose of convicting any person offending against the said Rules and Regulations, and for all other purposes of law whatsoever, a printed copy of the said Rules and Regulations, certified under the hand of the said Consul to be a true copy thereof, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of such Rules and Regulations, and all things therein respectively contained; and no penalty shall be incurred, or shall be enforced for the breach of any such Rules and Regulations to be hereafter made, until the same shall have been so affixed and exhibited for one calendar month in the public office of the Consul; Provided always, that any such Rule or Regulation made by Her Majesty's Consul, and to be enforced by a penalty, shall, before the first day on which the same shall be so affixed or exhibited, be transmitted to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for allowance or disallowance; and if any such Rule and Regulation shall be disallowed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the same shall cease to have effect from the receipt by the Consul of such disallowance; nevertheless, the Consul shall not be liable to be proceeded against in any of Her Majesty's Courts in regard to any act done by him under such Rule or Regulation previously to the receipt of its disallowance by such Consul.

3. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul as aforesaid, upon information or upon the complaint of any person that a British subject has violated any of the stipulations of any Treaty or Convention, or of any regulations appended to any Treaty or Convention, between Her Majesty and the Sultan of Muscat, or has disregarded or infringed any of the Rules or Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty or Convention, affixed and exhibited according to the provisions of the next preceding Article of this Order, to summon before him the accused person, and to receive evidence and to examine witnesses on oath as to the guilt or innocence of such person in regard to the offence laid to his charge, and to award such penalty of fine or imprisonment against any person convicted of an offence against any such Treaty or Convention, or appended Regulations, or against the said Rules and Regulations, as may be specified therein respectively; and any charge against a British subject for a breach of any such Treaty or Convention, or appended Regulations, or for a breach of such Rules and Regulations for the observance of any such Treaty, shall be heard and determined by the Consul without Assessors; Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty to be incurred by a breach of such Rules and Regulations exceed 500 dollars or three calendar months imprisonment.

4. And it is further ordered, that any charge against a British subject for a breach of Rules and Regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties shall, in like manner, be heard and determined by Her Majesty's Consul; and in all cases in which the penalty shall not exceed 200 dollars, or one calendar month's imprisonment, the Consul shall hear and determine the charge summarily, without the aid of Assessors; but where a penalty attached to a breach of the Rules and Regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties shall amount to more than 200 dollars, or to imprisonment for more than one calendar month, the Consul, before he shall proceed to hear the charge, shall summon two disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as Assessors, which Assessors, however, shall have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the person charged, or on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him on conviction, but it shall rest with the Consul to decide on the guilt or innocence of the person charged, and on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him: Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty to be attached to a breach of Rules and Regulations other than those for the observance of 'Treaties exceed 500 dollars, or three calendar months' imprisonment; and provided further, that, in the event of the said Assessors, or either of them, dissenting from the conviction of the party charged, or from the penalty of fine or imprisonment awarded to him by the Consul, the Consul shall take a note of such dissent, with the grounds thereof, and shall require good and sufficient security for the appearance of the person convicted at a future time, in order to undergo his sentence or receive his discharge; and in default of such security being given, it shall be lawful for the Consul to cause the person to be detained in custody until such security is given.

5. And it is further ordered, that if any person who shall have committed or been charged with any breach of or offence against any such Treaty or Convention, or any such Rules and Regulations as aforesaid, shall escape or remove from the Consular District within which the fact was committed, and shall be found within another Consular District, it shall be lawful for the Consul within which district such person shall be so found, to proceed against him in the same manner as if the fact had been committed within such district.

6. And it is further ordered, that all suits, disputes, differences, and causes of litigation of a civil nature arising between British subjects within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, shall be heard and determined by Her Majesty's Consul, who shall be the sole judge and arbiter thereof respectively; subject nevertheless to an appeal against the decision of the Consul therein to the High Court of Bombay, in cases where the sum or matter at issue is of the amount or value of 200 dollars or upwards: Provided always, that the party intending so to appeal against the decision of the said Consul shall, within fifteen days after the determination of the case by the Consul, by himself or his agent, give to the Consul notice in writing of his appeal to the said High Court of Bombay; whereupon the Consul shall, as speedily as possible, transmit to the said High Court all the documents which were produced before him in the case, and none other, together with a statement of the evidence taken before him in the case, and of the grounds on which his decision was formed, and shall forthwith notify to the several parties the transmission of the said proceedings to the said High Court: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the Consul to require from any person so appearing to the said High Court reasonable security, to consist in part of one or two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Consul, that such person so applying will duly prosecute his appeal, and will abide by the decision to be given therein by the said High Court, and that in case such appeal shall fail, he will answer and satisfy all costs, loss, and damages sustained by the other party by reason of such appeal.

7. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to summon not less than two, and not more than four, disinterested British subjects, of good repute, to sit with him as Assessors at the hearing of any suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation whatever, of a civil nature, brought before him for decision, and in case the sum sought to be recovered shall exceed 500 dollars such suit shall not be heard by the Consul without Assessors, if within a reasonable time such Assessors can be procured: but the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the merits of such suit, but in the event of such Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the decision of the Consul, the Consul shall enter the fact of such dissent and the grounds thereof in the minutes of the proceedings, and in case of appeal shall transmit the same to the High Court of Bombay, together with the documents relating to the suit.

8. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to enforce his decision in favour of or against a British subject in a civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, by distress and sale, or imprisonment, in like manner as a decision of the High Court of Bombay in a civil suit is enforced within the same.

9. And it is further ordered, that in case of an appeal to the High Court of Bombay from the decision of Her Majesty's Consul, it shall be lawful for the said High Court, upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as it shall think proper, to admit any further legal evidence besides that adduced before the Consul, on its being established to the satisfaction of the said High Court, by oath or affidavit, that the party desiring to produce such further evidence was ignorant of the existence of such evidence, or was taken by surprise at the hearing before the Consul or was enabled to produce it before the Consul after due and reasonable diligence and exertion on his part, or where, under the circumstances of the case, it shall appear to the said High Court that further evidence ought to be received.

10. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul, shall have power, in any civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremonies as the witness may declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him, and shall have power, on the application of any party in such suit, to issue a compulsory order for the attendance of any person being a British subject who may be competent to give evidence in such suit; and any British subject who shall have been duly served with any such compulsory order, and with a reasonable notice of the day of hearing of such suit, and upon his expenses of appearing as a witness having been paid or tendered to him by the party at whose application he shall have been ordered to attend shall, on his wilful default to appear as a witness at the hearing of such suit, be punished with a fine not exceeding 100 dollars, or with imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days, at the discretion of the said Consul.

11. Every witness, being a British subject, so examined on oath, whether before the Consul or before a Kadi or other officer of the Muscat Government, duly authorized to act judicially, who shall in any such examination give wilfully false testimony, may be convicted of and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

12. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to promote the settlement of any civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, by amicable agreement between the parties; and, with the consent of the several parties, to refer the decision of a suit or contention to one or more Arbitrators, and to take security from the parties that they will be bound by the result of such arbitration; and the award of such Arbitrator or Arbitrators shall be, to all intents and purposes, deemed and taken to be a judgment or sentence of Her Majesty's Consul in such civil suit, dispute, difference, or cause of litigation, and shall be entered and recorded as such, and shall have the like effect and operation and shall be enforced accordingly, and shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes, and shall not be open to appeal, unless the same shall, within a reasonable time, have been ordered by the Consul to be set aside, on the ground that it is not final, or is defective, or that the Arbitrator or Arbitrators have exceeded their authority, or have been guilty of misconduct in the matter.

13. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause to be apprehended and brought before him, any British subject who may be charged with having committed any crime or offence within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat; and such Consul shall thereupon proceed with all convenient speed to inquire of the same, and for such purpose shall have power to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremony as the witness shall declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him to prove the charge; and also shall have power to compel any person, being a British subject, who may be competent to give evidence as to the guilt or innocence of the party so charged, to appear and give evidence, and to punish the wilful default of any such person to appear and give evidence, after reasonable notice of the day of the hearing of such charge, by fine or imprisonment, in like manner as is provided in Article 10 of this Order, and shall examine every such witness in the presence and hearing of the party accused, and shall afford the party accused all reasonable facility for cross-examining such witness, and shall cause the deposition of every such witness to be reduced to writing, and the same to be read over, and, if necessary, explained to the party accused, together with any other evidence that may have been urged against him during the course of the inquiry, and shall require such accused party to defend himself against the charge brought against him, and, if necessary, advise him of the legal effect of any voluntary confession, and shall take the evidence of any witness whom the accused party may tender to be examined in his defence; and every witness being a British subject so examined as aforesaid who shall upon any such occasion give wilfully false testimony, may be convicted of and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury; and when the case has been fully inquired into, and the innocence or guilt of the person accused has been established to the satisfaction of the Consul, the Consul, as the case may be, shall either discharge the party accused from custody, if satisfied of his innocence, or proceed to pass sentence on him, if satisfied of his guilt; and it shall be lawful for the Consul, having inquired of, tried, and determined, in the manner aforesaid, any charge which may be brought before him, to award to the party convicted any amount of punishment not exceeding imprisonment for one calendar month, or a fine of 200 dollars,

14. And it is further ordered that if the crime or offence whereof any person being a British subject may be accused before Her Majesty's Consul as aforesaid, shall appear to such Consul to be of such a nature as, if approved, would not be adequately punished by the infliction of such punishment as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Consul to summon not less than two, or not more than four, disinterested British subjects of good repute to sit with him as Assessors for inquiring of, trying, and determining the charges against such person; and the Consul, when he shall try any such charge with the assistance of Assessors as aforesaid, shall, if he is himself convinced of the guilt of the party accused, have power to award any amount of punishment not exceeding imprisonment for twelve calendar months, or a fine of 1,000 dollars; and the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the party accused, or on the amount of punishment to be awarded to him on conviction, but in the event of the said Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the conviction of or from the amount of punishment awarded to the accused party, the Assessors or Assessor so dissenting shall be authorized to record in the minutes of the proceedings the grounds on which they or he may so dissent, and the Consul shall forthwith report to the High Court at Bombay the fact of such dissent and of its having been so recorded in the minutes of the proceedings, and shall, as soon as possible, lay before the said Court copies of the whole of the depositions and proceedings with the dissent of the Assessor or Assessors recorded therein, and it shall be lawful thereupon for the Court, by warrant under seal addressed to the Consul, to confirm, or vary, or remit altogether, as to the Court may seem fit, the sentence and punishment awarded to the party accused, and such Consul shall give immediate effect to the injunction of any such warrant: Provided always, that in any case in which the Assessor or Assessors shall dissent from the conviction of or from the amount of punishment awarded to the accused party, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to take good and sufficient bail from the accused party to appear and undergo the punishment awarded to him provided the same or any portion thereof be confirmed by the Court, which punishment so confirmed shall commence and take effect from the day on which the decision of the Court shall be notified to the party accused.

15. And in order more effectually to repress crimes and offences on the part of British subjects within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, it is further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause any British subject who shall have been twice convicted before him of any crime or offence, and punished for the same, and who, after execution of the sentence of the Consul, on any second conviction shall not be able to find good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Consul, for his future good behaviour, or who having been deported under any sentence shall during such sentence return, to be sent out of the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat; and to this end the Consul shall have power and authority as soon as may be practicable after execution of the sentence on such second conviction, to send any such twice-convicted party, or any person so returning as aforesaid, to Bombay, and in the meantime to detain such party in custody until a suitable opportunity for sending him out of the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat shall present itself; and any person so to be sent out of the said dominions as aforesaid, shall be embarked in custody on board of one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there shall be no such vessel available for such purpose, then on board any British vessel bound to Bombay; and it shall be lawful for the Commander of any of Her Majesty's ships of war, or of any British vessel bound to Bombay, to receive any such person as aforesaid under a warrant from the Consul to him addressed, and thereupon to convey such person in custody to Bombay as aforesaid, in the same manner as if he were a distressed British subject, unless he shall be willing and able himself to defray the expenses of his passage.

16. And it is further ordered, that in any case in which any British subject shall be accused before Her Majesty's Consul of the crime of arson, or house-breaking, or cutting and maiming, or stabbing or wounding, or of any assault endangering life, or of wilfully causing any bodily injury dangerous to life, or of wilful or corrupt perjury, or of engaging in or being accessory to the purchase or sale of slaves, or of having slaves illegally in his possession, the proceedings before the Consul shall be carried on with the aid of Assessors convened in the manner aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Consul, if to him it shall seem fit, to cause any person convicted before him of any of the crimes aforesaid, over and above any fine or imprisonment which may be awarded to such person, to be sent out of the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat for such time as to him shall seem meet, in the manner pointed out in the next preceding Article of this Order, notwithstanding the crime laid to the charge of such person may be the first of which he has been convicted before the Consul.

17. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, upon information laid before him by one or more credible witnesses, that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject is about to commit a breach of the public peace, to cause such British subject to be brought before him, and to require such British subject to give sufficient security to keep the peace; and in the event of any British subject being convicted of and punished for a breach of the peace, to cause such British subject after he shall have undergone the punishment which may have been awarded to him by the Consul, to find security for his good behaviour; and in the event of any British subject who may be required as aforesaid to give sufficient security to keep the peace, or to find security for his good behaviour, being unable or wilfully omitting to do so, then and in any such case it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to send such British subject out of the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, in the manner pointed out in Article 15 of this Order.

18. And it is further ordered, that in all cases in which a British subject shall have been sent out of the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, as provided in the three next preceding Articles of this Order, the Consul sending him out shall forthwith report such act of deportation, with the grounds of his decision thereon, to the High Court of Bombay.

19. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause to be apprehended and brought before him any British subject who may be charged with smuggling or importing into the dominions of the said Sultan any goods whereon any duty shall be charged or payable to the said Sultan, with the intent to evade the payment of such duty, or any goods the importation whereof shall be prohibited; and such Consul shall thereupon proceed with all convenient speed to inquire into the same on oath or solemn affirmation, and to hear the witnesses on both sides, with like powers and in like manner in all respects as is provided by Article 10 of this Order. And it shall be lawful for the Consul, having inquired into and heard the said charge, to determine the same, and if he shall find the party guilty, if the charge against him shall be of importing into the said dominions prohibited goods, then to award him to pay a fine not exceeding treble the value of the said goods at the current price of the day; and if the charge shall be of smuggling or importing goods with intent to evade the payment of duty as aforesaid, then to award him to pay a fine not exceeding treble the amount of the duties leviable thereon, and in case of non-payment of any such fine or fines to award him to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months, or it shall be lawful for such Consul, without awarding the payment of any fine, to award that such party shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months in such place as he shall appoint: Provided always, that no British subject charged only with importing prohibited goods shall be apprehended, unless and until he shall have had one week's notice to appear and answer the charge, and shall have refused, failed, or omitted so to appear.

20. And it is further ordered, that in cases of common assault, it shall be lawful for the Consul before whom the complaint is made, to promote reconciliation between the parties, and to suffer compensation and amends to be made, and the proceedings thereby to be finally stayed.

21. And it is further ordered, that a minute of the proceedings in every case heard and determined before the Consul, in pursuance of this Order, shall be carefully drawn up and be signed by the Consul, and shall, in cases where the Assessors are present, be open for the inspection of such Assessors and for their signature if they therein shall concur; and every such minute together with the depositions of the witnesses, shall be preserved in the public office of the said Consul.

22. And it is further ordered, that save and except as regards offences committed by British subjects against the stipulations of any Treaty between Her Majesty and the Sultan of Muscat, or against any Rules or Regulations for the observance of the stipulations of any such Treaty or Convention, duly affixed and exhibited according to the provisions of Article 2 of this Order, or against any Rules and Regulations for the peace, order, and good government of Her Majesty's subjects being within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, no act done by a British subject within the dominions of the said Sultan, shall by Her Majesty's Consul be deemed and taken to be a crime or misdemeanour, or offence rendering the person committing it amenable to punishment, which, if done within any part of Her Majesty's dominions, would not by a Court of Justice having criminal jurisdiction in Her Majesty's dominions, have been deemed and taken to be a crime or misdemeanour or offence rendering the person committing it amenable to punishment; and Her Majesty is pleased to appoint by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, Her Majesty's territory of Bombay, as the place where crimes and offences committed by British subjects within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, which it may be expedient shall be inquired of, tried, determined, and punished within Her Majesty's dominions, shall be so inquired of, tried, determined, and punished; and Her Majesty's Consul resident in Muscat shall have authority to cause any British subject charged with the commission of any crime or offence, the cognizance whereof may at any time appertain to him, to be sent for trial at Her Majesty's said territory of Bombay.

23. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to cause any British subject charged with the commission of any crime or offence, the cognizance whereof may at any time appertain to him, to be sent, in any of Her Majesty's ships of war, or in any British vessel, to Her Majesty's territory of Bombay, for trial before the High Court of the said territory; and it shall be lawful for the commander of any of Her Majesty's ships of war, or of any British vessel, to receive any such person on board, with a warrant from the said Consul addressed to the Chief Magistrate of Police of the said territory; and thereupon to keep and detain in lawful custody, and to convey him in custody to Bombay, and on his arrival there to deliver him, with the said warrant, into the custody of the said Chief Magistrate of Police, or other officer within the said territory lawfully acting as such, who, on receipt of the said warrant, and of the party therein named, shall be authorized to commit, and shall commit, such party so sent for trial to the common gaol of the said territory; and it shall be lawful for the keeper of the said common gaol to cause such party to be detained in safe and proper custody, and to be produced upon the order of the said High Court; and the High Court at the Sessions to be holden next after such committal shall proceed to hear and determine the charge against such party, and to punish him for the same, if found guilty, in the same manner as if the crime with which he may be charged had been committed within Her Majesty's said territory of Bombay.

24. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul, on any occasion of sending a prisoner to Bombay for trial, shall observe the provisions made with regard to prisoners sent for trial to a British Colony in an Act passed in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to remove doubts as to the exercise of power and jurisdiction by Her Majesty within divers countries and places out of Her Majesty's dominions, and to render the same more effectual.

25. And it is further ordered, that the High Court of Bombay shall have and may exercise, concurrently with Her Majesty's Consul, authority and jurisdiction in regard to all suits of a civil nature between British subjects arising within any part of the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat: Provided always, that the said High Court shall not be bound, unless in a fit case it shall deem it right so to do, by writ of certiorari, or otherwise, to debar or prohibit the Consul from hearing and determining, pursuant to the provisions of the several Articles of this Order, any suit of a civil nature between British subjects, or to stay the proceedings of the Consul in any such matter.

26. And it is further ordered, that all fines and penalties imposed under this Order may be levied by distress and seizure, and sale of ships, and of goods and chattels; and no bill of sale, mortgage, or transfer of property made by a party accused after his apprehension, or with a view to securing such party against any crime or offence committed or to be committed by him, or against the consequences thereof, shall avail to defeat any of the provisions of this Order.

27. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul, from time to time, to establish rules of practice to be observed in proceedings before him, and to make regulations for defraying the expenses of witnesses in such proceedings, and the cost of criminal prosecutions, and also to establish rates and scales of fees to be taken in regard to civil suits heard and determined before the said Consul; and it shall be lawful for the said Consul to enforce by seizure and sale of goods, or, if there be no sufficient goods, by imprisonment, the payment of such established fees, and of such costs or expenses as may be adjudged against the parties, or any of them: Provided always, that a table specifying the rates of fees to be so taken shall be affixed and kept exhibited in the public office of the said Consul.

28. And it is further ordered, that all fees, penalties, fines, and forfeitures levied under this Order, save and except such penalties as may by Treaty be payable to the Sultan of Muscat, shall be paid to the public account, and shall be applied in diminution of the public expenditure on account of Her Majesty's Consulate in Muscat: Provided always, that in the event of any of the Muscat authorities declining to receive fines payable to the Government of Muscat as aforesaid, the same shall also be paid to the public account, and applied in the manner last mentioned.

29. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat shall, for and within the said dominions and for vessels and persons coming within those dominions, and in regard to vessels captured on suspicion of being engaged in the Slave Trade within those dominions, have all such jurisdiction as for the time being ordinarily belongs to Courts of Vice-Admiralty in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to grant probate of will on letters of administration to the intestate estate of any British subject, or any native of a State or place under British protection, who shall die and leave property within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat; and if such probate or letters of administration shall not be applied for within thirty days after the death of the deceased person, it shall be lawful for the Consul to administer to the estate of such person and for so doing to reserve to himself out of the proceeds of such estate a commission not exceeding two and a half per cent. on the account thereof.

30. And it is further ordered, that a register shall be kept by Her Majesty's Consul of all British subjects, and of all natives of British-protected States in India who may claim British protection, residing within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, and that every British subject now residing within such dominions who shall not have been already enrolled in such Consular register shall, within a reasonable time after the promulgation of this Order—such time to be specified in a notice affixed and publicly exhibited in the Consular Office—apply to the Consul to be enrolled in such register; and every British subject who may arrive within the said dominions (except British subjects borne on the muster-roll of any British ship arriving in any port of Muscat), shall, within a reasonable time after his arrival—such time to be specified as aforesaid—also apply to the Consul to be enrolled in such register; and any British subject who shall refuse or neglect to comply to be so enrolled as hereinbefore mentioned, and who shall not excuse such refusal or neglect to the satisfaction of the Consul, shall not be entitled to be recognized or protected as a British subject in respect to any suit, dispute, or difficulty in which he may have been, or may be engaged or involved within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, at any time when he shall not have been, or shall not be, so enrolled.

31. And it is further ordered, that Her Majesty's Consul shall and may exercise all or any of the powers which, by any Act or Acts of the Imperial Parliament for the regulation of merchant seamen, or for the regulation of the mercantile marine, may now, or at any time hereafter, be exercised by any Justice or Justices of the Peace within Her Majesty's dominions.

32. And it is further ordered, that nothing in this Order contained shall be deemed or construed to prevent Her Majesty's Consul, within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat, from doing or performing any act whatsoever which British Consuls within any other State in amity with Her Majesty are by law, usage, or sufferance entitled or enabled to do or perform.

33. And it is further ordered, that every action or suit brought against Her Majesty's Consul, by reason of anything done under the authority of this Order, shall be commenced within six calendar months next after the doing thereof, and not otherwise; and the defendant in every such action or suit shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions, made with respect to defendants in actions or suits in the said hereinbefore-recited Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign.

34. And it is further ordered, that the word "Consul" in this Order, shall include every person duly authorized to act in the aforesaid capacity, within the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat; and that, in the construction of this Order, words importing the singular number, shall, if necessary, be understood to include several persons, matters, or things; and words importing the masculine gender only shall, if necessary, be understood to import the feminine gender, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

35. And it is further ordered, that the provisions of this Order, relating to British subjects, shall extend and apply to all subjects of Her Majesty, whether by birth or by naturalization, and also to all persons enjoying Her Majesty's protection in the dominions of the Sultan of Muscat. And it is further ordered, that this Order shall take effect on and after the first day of December next.

36. And the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, and the Right Honourable Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart., two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
 November 6, 1867.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs,
 a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Rio de Janeiro, inclosing copy and translation of a decree of the Brazilian Government, dated

4th September, 1867, the articles of which are subjoined:—

ART. I. The Revenue Departments of Estancia and Christovao, in the Province of Sergipe, in addition to the despatching of articles, both of national and foreign growth, produce, and manufacture, which may have already paid duty for consumption in the country, shall also be qualified to export national produce either to the interior or out of the empire.

ART. II. The same stations may admit the dispatch of either national or foreign vessels, which may arrive exclusively loaded with foreign goods free of duty.

(C. 1586.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 6, 1867.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Trebizond, containing the following detailed list of the "Monopoly Transport Tariff," of the new "Competition Tariff," and of the prices of inland transport:—

Goods to be embarked from Trebizond for Constantinople, or vice versâ, by the Russian, French, Austrian, Turkish, or Italian steamer, are divided into six classes, each class bearing a separate rate.

CLASS I.

Paying forty piastres the kintal. This weight equals one hundred and thirty pounds English; forty piastres, at the present currency, equal six shillings and eight pence. But as payment can only be made in gold or silver, the real value is about seven shillings.

Articles.

Silk cocoons.
 Down feathers.
 Opium.
 Leeches.
 Scammony.

CLASS II.

Paying thirty piastres the kintal, or about five shillings and sixpence the weight above stated, avoirdupois.

Cocoons, half pressed.
 Cotton, not pressed.
 Furs.
 Floss silk, not pressed.
 Wool, not pressed.
 Living plants.
 Reeds (used for pens).
 Silk, not worked.
 Carpets.
 Wool and cotton stuffs.
 Rizah cloth (flax).
 Silk, worked.

CLASS III.

Paying twenty piastres the kintal, or about three shillings and eight pence the weight above stated.

Almonds.
 Wax, yellow.
 Copper, in mass.
 Cumin seed.
 Deers' horns.
 Baskets.
 Thread, white and black.
 Nets.
 Rough silk, half pressed.
 Gum.

Wool, pressed and not pressed.
 Hides (tanned) and prepared leather.
 Goat-skins.
 Sheep-skins.
 Hare-skins.
 Embroidery, various.
 Insect-powder.

CLASS IV.

Paying fifteen piastres the kintal, or about two shillings and nine pence English the weight above stated.

Tinder.
 Madder.
 Anise.
 Dried Bamias (a vegetable).
 Butter.
 Caviare.
 Flax, not pressed.
 Eatables.
 Canvas.
 Silk worms' eggs.
 Fruit, fresh.
 Tobacco.
 Cotton, pressed and not pressed.
 Hemp and tow.

CLASS V.

Paying twelve piastres the kintal, or about two shillings and four pence English, the weight above stated.

Almonds.
 Dried meat.
 Chesnuts.
 Glue.
 Ropes.
 Sheep-horns.
 Dried fruits.

Gall-nuts.
 Pitch.
 Henna.
 Pipe-sticks.
 Buffalo hides.
 Fish oil (porpoise).
 Linseed oil.
 Nuts and walnuts.
 Hams.
 Raisins.
 Sacking.
 Salt.
 Grease.
 Logwood.
 Smoked meat.
 Tow, pressed and half pressed.

CLASS VI.

Paying eight piastres the kintal, or about one shilling and five pence English, the weight above stated.

Boxwood.
 Timber.
 Bruised grain (article of food).
 Hemp, half pressed.
 Copper, not worked.
 Staves.
 Emery powder.
 Flour, all sorts.
 Seeds.
 Beans.
 Pig metal, all sorts.
 Ores.
 Potatoes.
 Rice.
 Corn, and the like.

All the above prices were at twenty per cent. higher two months ago.

Follows in a class by itself :

Persian tobacco, or tambak, which pays twenty piastres the kintal and half, or about three shillings and eight pence English per one hundred and ninety-five pounds avoirdupois, being about one penny for four pounds and a half weight.

The former tariff was one-half heavier for this article, being five shillings and sixpence for the same quantity, giving one penny for somewhat less than three pounds weight.

Shawls and specie paying one-half per cent. on their value.

Carriages, indiscriminately, have to pay four hundred piastres, or about seventy shillings English, for their transport.

Follows the tariff of articles having to pay per head or individual :

Passengers, first class, food included, six hundred and thirty-five piastres, being about five pounds eleven shillings English.

Passengers, second class, four hundred and fifty-eight piastres, or about four pounds English.

Passengers, third class, two hundred and fifty piastres, or about two pounds three shillings and sixpence English.

Passengers, fourth class, and food not included, one hundred and fifty piastres, or about one pound six shillings English.

Horses, three hundred and fifty piastres, or about three pounds one shilling English.

Mules, the same.

Asses, two hundred piastres, or about one pound fifteen shillings English.

Goats, thirty-five piastres, or about six shillings and five pence English.

Sheep, the same.

For dogs, birds, and the like, there is, I understand, no absolute tariff.

As regards the land transport to Erzeroum, the prices can hardly be characterized as the result of monopoly, but rather of custom and want of better conveyance. They are as follows:

A laden camel, carrying, that is, about two hundred and sixty okes, or about seven hundred weight avoirdupois. Hire, two hundred piastres, or about one pound fifteen shillings English.

A laden horse, carrying, that is, about one hundred and thirty okes, or about three hundred weight and a half avoirdupois. Hire, one hundred and forty-five piastres, or about one pound five shillings and sixpence English.

A rider, with his baggage, provided that their joint weight do not exceed that just stated, pays the same fare.

A laden ox, carrying, that is, about ninety okes, or about two hundred weight and one third avoirdupois. Hire, about fifty-six piastres, or ten shillings and sixpence English.

Mules are little used on this line. When so, their hire is the same as that of a horse.

The prices or fares just given are solely and absolutely dependent on the weight, and quite independent of the quality of the goods so conveyed.

The time taken by a loaded beast, or caravan, from Trebizond to Erzeroum varies from twelve to fifteen days; the distance is about one hundred and eighty miles. This should be had account of in estimating the prices just given.

Lastly, the prices of land transport are liable to a slight, but equable rise in bad weather and winter.

(C. 1588.)

Foreign Office, November 13, 1867.

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires in Mexico, a Circular issued by the Mexican Government, of which the following is a translation :—

GENERAL TREASURY OF THE NATION.

Section 1.—Circular.

On this day I tell the Chief of the Finance Department of the State of Michoacan as follows :—

“The Minister of Finance and Public Credit has been pleased to state to me, under date of the 18th instant, as follows :—

“In consequence of the report made to me in your communication of yesterday, relative to the acceptance by the Finance Department of Michoacan, of some bonds in part payment of a redemption effected there by Messrs. Alexander Quesada, Gregory Patiño, and Romuald Perez, President has been pleased to determine that you should be informed that if the bonds in question be not of the description the receipt whereof is prohibited, as the Chief of the Finance Department says, they ought to be accepted. I communicate this to you as the result of your aforesaid report." — And I transmit it to you in answer to the despatch which you addressed to me on the 6th instant, No. 8, having to state in addition that in the opinion of the Treasury your office ought to receive the bonds so-called of the 5 and 3 per cent. of the Consolidated National Debt, which are marked as good, for the amount which the General Treasury has marked on each of them, as directed by the Supreme Government on the 14th of January, 1861; the certificates which this Treasury issued in virtue of the Supreme Order of the 17th of the same month and year, which replaced the bonds created by the law of 30th November, 1850, without bearing any mark like the preceding, inasmuch as they were issued after the requisite examination. The bonds which, notwithstanding the legal requirements, bear the register put upon them by the so-called Government of the Empire, are not to be received, nor yet the bonds created and issued by the Government from the 17th of December, 1857, to the 1st of January, 1861, nor any others that are without the note of the Head of the Second Section of the Finance Department, the signature of the Treasury Minister, and the prescribed register, even though they be such as proceed from the aforesaid law of 30th November, 1850.

Of which I apprise you for your information and all other purposes.

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from the Acting British Consul-General at Havana, a Despatch, of which the following is a copy :—

Havana, October 19, 1867.

I HAVE the honour of suggesting to your Lordship the necessity of cautioning all British ship-owners, and the masters of British vessels, trading with the Island of Cuba, to be very careful in complying with the Custom House Regulations, so as to avoid incurring vexatious fines for which the least omission will render them liable.

These Regulations are contained in the Royal Order of the 1st July, 1859, and every Spanish Consul has a copy.

The chief points are as follows :—

“Masters of vessels trading with Cuba and Porto Rico must present to the Spanish Consul at the port from whence they sail a manifest in duplicate, without erasure or alteration, which must express,—

1st. The rigg, nationality, name, and Spanish tonnage of the vessel.

2nd. The master's name.

3rd. The port or ports she sails from.

4th. The names of the shippers and those of the owners or consignees of the cargo.

5th The bundles, balcs, casks, barrels, cases, and other packages, with their corresponding marks and numbers, expressing in writing and in figures the exact quantity of each kind.

6th. The general class of the merchandize or contents of the packages and their gross weight in kilogrammes.

7th. Similar information as to what is intended for bond or in transit.

8th. The manifest to conclude by a declaration that the vessel conveys no other goods besides, and that those she has on board are not prohibited through fear of infection or otherwise. No entry to order is allowed.

Merchandize in bulk, such as rod and sheet iron, metals in bars and ingots, boards, deals, and other woods, and the like must be declared by their Spanish weight, measurement, and quantity according to their class.

Both copies of the manifest will be certified by the Consul, one of which he will return to the master, and the other is to be transmitted to the Custom-house authorities at the port to which the vessel is bound.

Masters of vessels must also be careful to provide themselves with a bill of health duly certified and sealed by the Spanish Consul."

Whitehall, November 8, 1867.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of NOVEMBER 22, 1867.

Her Majesty's most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday, November 19, 1867.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IN again applying to you for your advice and assistance, I regret that I have found it necessary to call for your attendance at an unusual, and probably to many of you an inconvenient season.

The Sovereign of Abyssinia, in violation of all international law, continues to hold in captivity several of My subjects, some of whom have been especially accredited to him by Myself, and his persistent disregard of friendly representations has left Me no alternative but that of making a peremptory demand for the liberation of My subjects, and supporting it by an adequate force.

I have accordingly directed an expedition to be sent for that purpose alone, and I confidently rely upon the support and co-operation of My Parliament in My endeavour at once to relieve their countrymen from an unjust imprisonment, and to vindicate the honour of My Crown.

I have directed that papers on the subject shall be forthwith laid before you.

I receive from all foreign powers assurances of their friendly feelings, and I see no reason to apprehend the disturbance of the general peace of Europe.

A Band of Italian volunteers, without authority from their own Sovereign, having invaded the Papal territory, and threatened Rome itself, the Emperor of the French felt himself called upon to despatch an expedition for the protection of the Sovereign Pontiff and his dominions ; that object having been accomplished, and the defeat and dispersion of the volunteer force having relieved the Papal territory from the danger of external invasion, I trust that His Imperial Majesty will find himself enabled, by an early withdrawal of his troops, to remove any possible ground of misunderstanding between His Majesty's Government and that of the King of Italy.

The treasonable conspiracy commonly known as Fenianism, baffled and repressed in Ireland, has assumed in England the form of organized violence and assassination. These outrages require to be rigorously put down ; and I rely for their effectual suppression upon the firm administration of the law, and the loyalty of the great mass of my subjects.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The estimates for the ensuing year are in course of preparation, and will in due time be laid before you. They will be framed with a view to economy and to the necessary requirements of the public service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

As a necessary sequel to the legislation of the last session, Bills will be laid before you for amending the representation of the people in Scotland and Ireland.

I have reason to believe that the Commissioners appointed to inquire into and report upon the boundaries of existing boroughs, as well as of the proposed divisions of counties and newly enfranchised boroughs, have made considerable progress in their inquiries, and no time will be lost after the receipt of their report in laying before you their recommendations for your consideration and decision.

A Bill will also be presented to you for the more effectual prevention of bribery and corruption at elections.

The Public Schools Bill, which has already been more than once submitted to Parliament, will again be laid before you.

The general question of the education of the people requires your most serious attention, and I have no doubt you will approach the subject with a full appreciation both of its vital importance and of its acknowledged difficulties.

Measures will be submitted to you during the present session for amending and consolidating the various Acts relating to the mercantile marine.

The exemption which the country has now for some time enjoyed from the cattle plague affords a favourable opportunity for considering such permanent enactments as may relieve the home trade from vexatious restrictions, and facilitate the introduction, under due regulation, of foreign cattle for home consumption.

Measures for the amendment of the law, which have been deferred under the pressure of more urgent business, will be submitted for your consideration.

Other questions apparently calling for legislative action have been referred to Commissioners, whose reports, as they shall be received, shall, without delay, be laid before Parliament.

It is My earnest prayer that all your deliberations may be so guided as to conduce to the general contentment and happiness of My people.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 22nd day of November, 1867.

HER Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Adelbert Wellington Brownlow, Earl Brownlow, to be Her Majesty's Lieutenant for the County of Lincoln, his Lordship this day took and subscribed the oath appointed to be taken thereupon instead of the oaths of allegiance, supremacy, and abjuration.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
November 21, 1867.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Berlin, enclosing the subjoined

précis of an edict respecting the entry of Holstein and Sleswig into the Zollverein :—

“Since the Grand Duchies of Holstein and Sleswig, which were united with the Prussian Monarchy by the Law of the 24th December, 1866, and in consequence belong to the North German Confederation as far as regards their Customs regulations, have administrated their Customs duties in accordance with laws of the other party of the Monarchy, except in the case of the duty on salt, which was to remain untouched till 1st January, 1868, and since Bavaria and Wurtemberg, as well as Baden and Hesse, have agreed that the above-named Duchies should enter the Zollverein before the 1st January, 1868, it has been determined as follows :—

1. The Duchies of Holstein and Sleswig shall enter the Zollverein on the 15th instant (November), and from that date they shall be entitled to free intercourse with the other Zollverein States, under the following conditions :—

2. Free intercourse shall also be extended to the following places which belong to the Customs system of the Duchies of Sleswig and Holstein.

(a). Lubeck, Ahrensboeck, Dunkelsdorf, Eckhorst, Movi, Gross-Steinrade, and Stoekelsdorf, and also Böbs Schwinkenrade and Schwochel :

(b). Gross-Hansdorf, with Schmalenbeck and Beimoor, Wohldorf, Ohlstedt, and Volksdorf, Farmsen, Lehmboeck and Berne, belonging to Hamburg :

(c). Dissau, Krumbeck, half Curau and Malkendorf, belonging to Lubeck.

3. The towns of Altona and Wandsbeck, which were not included in the former Commercial Treaty between Holstein and Sleswig, are not admitted to the Zollverein.

4. The present regulation with respect to salt will continue in force till 1st January, 1868, consequently free trade in salt between the two Duchies and the rest of the Zollverein will only begin on that date.

5. With reference also to articles which are subject to indirect taxation—brandy, beer, and tobacco—the Duchies shall enjoy perfect freedom of trade with the rest of the Monarchy, as also with the States belonging to the Zollverein, with the exception of the part of Hesse north of the Maine, and of a part of Cassel, where special limitations in regard to trade in brandy exist until July 1, 1868.

The Duchies of Holstein and Sleswig, as far as regards articles subject to indirect taxation, shall enjoy freedom of trade with Bavaria, Wurtemberg, Baden, Hesse, and Luxemburg, equally with the other parts of the Monarchy.”

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Berlin, copies of Federal Law abolishing the Salt Monopoly in Germany, and of a Treaty with the Zollverein States on that subject, to the following effect:—

The Salt Monopoly is abolished.

Excise on Home Salt.

A duty of two thalers per centner is imposed on all salt destined for home consumption; the duty on inland salt to be paid by the producer, and that on foreign salt to be paid by the importer. Under that head are included all substances from which salt is obtained, the financial Authorities being empowered to grant exemptions, except where abuse is to be apprehended.

A penalty, equal to double the amount of the duty, in no case to be less than ten thalers, accompanied by the confiscation of the articles, is imposed in all cases of fraud, and, in default of confiscation, the payment of a sum equivalent to the value of the salt which has been the subject of the fraud. The machinery, &c., belonging to persons so defrauding the revenue is also liable to confiscation.

Duty on Foreign Salt.

The regulations now in force of the "Customs Law," and the "Customs Penal Law," together with the various modifications lately introduced in the same, are applicable to the importation of foreign and saline substances, as well as to the transit of the same through the territory of the Confederation. It is reserved to the financial Authorities of each separate Federal State to determine how far depôts of foreign salt are to be exempted from duty.

Salt in transit. salt intended for manufactures, agricultural or chemical purposes, or for salting meat intended for exportation, also salt destined for purposes of charity, are exempted from duty.

This law is to come into force on the 1st January, 1868.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
December 16, 1867.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Helsingfors, reporting that as the Harbour is covered with ice the navigation of that port may be considered as closed for the season.

War Office, December 17, 1867.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officer and Private Soldiers of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for their gallant conduct at the Little Andaman Island, as recorded against their names, viz.:—

2nd Battalion, 24th Regiment.

Assistant-Surgeon Campbell Millis Douglas, M.D., Privates Thomas Murphy, James Cooper, David Bell, and William Griffiths.—For the very gallant and daring manner in which, on the 7th of May, 1867, they risked their lives in manning a boat and proceeding through a dangerous surf to the rescue of some of their comrades, who formed part of an expedition which had been sent to the Island of Little Andaman, by order of the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah, with the view of ascertaining the fate of the Commander and seven of the crew of the ship "Assam Valley," who had landed there, and were supposed to have been murdered by the natives.

The officer who commanded the troops on the occasion reports: "About an hour later in the day, Dr. Douglas, 2nd Battalion, 24th Regiment, and the four Privates referred to, gallantly manning the second gig, made their way through the surf almost to the shore, but finding their boat was half filled with water, they retired. A second attempt made by Dr. Douglas and party proved successful, five of us being safely passed through the surf to the boats outside. A third and last trip got the whole of the party left on shore safe to the boats."

It is stated that Dr. Douglas accomplished these trips through the surf to the shore by no ordinary exertion. He stood in the bows of the boat, and worked her in an intrepid and seamanlike manner, cool to a degree, as if what he was then doing was an ordinary act of everyday life. The four Privates behaved in an equally cool and collected manner, rowing through the roughest surf when the slightest hesitation or want of pluck on the part of any one of them would have been attended by the gravest results. It is reported that seventeen officers and men were thus saved from what must otherwise have been a fearful risk, if not certainty of death.

SUPPLEMENT

LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 20, 1867.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 20th day of December, 1867.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day Sir Francis Bond Head, Baronet. was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 24, 1867.

Osborne, December 20, 1867.

THE Queen was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Arthur Edward Kennedy, Esq., C.B., Governor-in-Chief of the West African Settlements.

Foreign Office, December 20, 1867.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. John Maxwell Savage as Vice-Consul at Liverpool for the Republic of Haiti.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
December 21, 1867.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the decoration of "The Albert Medal of the Second Class" on:—

JOHN RICKETT, A.B., of Her Majesty's ship
 "Clio."

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred:—

On the 24th May, 1866, whilst Her Majesty's ship "Clio" was lying at anchor off the Ajia-bampo, on the coast of Mexico, a boy named Thomas (or Tom) Walton, belonging to her, fell into the sea from a stage outside the ship. He was unable to swim, and was sinking the third time when JOHN RICKETT jumped into the water, brought him to the surface, got him to the ship's cable, and there supported him for ten or fifteen minutes, when the ship's boat reached them.

A man named Card assisted to hold the boy up from overhead.

There was a heavy sea on at the time, and the port was known to be infested with sharks, and just as the ship's boat came up, RICKETT, who was at the time still suffering from the effects of an attack of coast fever, and was in consequence very weak, relaxed his hold of the cable, and himself dropped into the water, from which he was picked up just in time to save his life. Both were insensible when taken into the boat.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
December 21, 1867.*

The Queen has been graciously pleased to confer the decoration of "The Albert Medal of the First Class" on :—

A. T. SHUTTLEWORTH, Esq., Deputy Conservator of Forests at Alibagh.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the decoration has been conferred :—

On the 22nd July, 1866, the "Berwickshire" ran on Chawool Kadoo Reef. Mr. SHUTTLEWORTH went to her assistance in a fisherman's canoe, and, after two days' exertions, succeeded in landing six men in one of the ship's boats. Mr. SHUTTLEWORTH again proceeded to the ship with the fishermen in another boat in so dangerous a sea that some of the 'Berwickshire's' seamen, who had landed, and the coolies of Colaba, to whom a large reward was offered, declined to take a message to her. After rowing for three hours, the boat having twice filled to the thwarts, he reached the vessel, and informed the captain of her true position, and remained on board to give assistance.

On the 1st August, 1866, the "Die Vernon" ran on the Chawool Kadoo Reef, near Alibagh. Mr. SHUTTLEWORTH put off in a boat with ten native fishermen, and by his coolness was the means of averting a greater loss of life than that which unhappily took place. The boat was dashed against the vessel's side and capsized, throwing all her crew into the water, and, while endeavouring to save some of these, Mr. SHUTTLEWORTH was washed overboard. He, however, regained the vessel, and was for two hours lashed in the mizen rigging. He refused to forsake the captain and carpenter who were helpless, and eventually succeeded in saving the captain. The carpenter was washed away and drowned.

On the 18th July, 1867, the ship 'Terzah' was wrecked about south-east of Kennery. Mr. SHUTTLEWORTH put off in a lifeboat manned by fishermen, and succeeded in bringing off the captain and thirteen men out of a crew of thirty-one. Eight others came on shore on pieces of wreck. This service was rendered by Mr. SHUTTLEWORTH and his crew at great peril of their lives. The sea was breaking very heavily all round the ship and washing over her.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Malaga, reporting that "by virtue of two recent dispositions of the Spanish Government, a considerable augmentation is established in the navigation dues levied on steam ships trading to the ports of that Kingdom."

"Until lately the duties on anchorage and lights (one real or 2½d. per ton for each) were levied only once on the voyage made by a vessel navigating to one or more ports in Spain. At present, in the case of steamers, those dues are doubled, being exacted both on the inward and the outward voyage. The measure does not extend to sailing vessels ; and it is applicable to national as well as to foreign flags.'

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for their gallant conduct in Bhootan, as recorded against their names, viz. :--

Royal (late Bengal) Engineers.

Major William Spottiswoode Trevor and Lieutenant James Dundas.—For their gallant conduct at the attack on the Block-house at Dewan-Giri, in Bhootan, on the 30th of April, 1865.

Major-General Tombs, C.B., V.C., the Officer in command at the time, reports that a party of the enemy from 180 to 200 in number, had barricaded themselves in the Block-house in question, which they continued to defend after the rest of the position had been carried, and the main body was in retreat. The Block-house, which was loop-holed, was the key of the enemy's position. Seeing no Officer of the storming party near him, and being anxious that the place should be taken immediately, as any protracted resistance might have caused the main body of the Bhooteas to rally, the British force having been fighting in a broiling sun on very steep and difficult ground for upwards of three hours, the General in command ordered these two Officers to show the way into the Block-house. They had to climb up a wall which was 14 feet high, and then to enter a house occupied by some 200 desperate men, head foremost through an opening not more than two feet wide between the top of the wall and the roof of the Block-house.

Major-General Tombs states that on speaking to the Sikh soldiers around him, and telling them in Hindoostani to swarm up the wall, none of them responded to the call, until these two Officers had shewn them the way, when they followed with the greatest alacrity. Both of them were wounded.
